Data Protection and Personal Rights Declaration (according to DSGVO)

1. RbW e.V. acquires, processes and uses members' personal data (name, address, bank details, telephone numbers, email addresses, individual's role within the NGO) for fulfilling its tasks and objectives as declared in its statutes. These data will be stored on computers and electronic storage mediums of the board. Access to data will be exclusively granted to the board and selected authorized persons within the society, e.g. auditors.

2. Through your membership and acceptance of RbW e.V.'s statutes you agree that RbW e.V. may acquire, process and use personal data to further its statutory duties and responsibilities. This data will only be used for purposes defined in RbW e.V.'s statutes and will not be passed on or sold to third parties.

3. By virtue of their membership and the concomitant acceptance of the statute of RbW e.V. members consent to having names and images published in print, tele and electronic media, as long as this is in accordance and within the statutory framework of RbW e.V.

4. According to the German Federal Data Protection Act every member has a right to:

- receive information of his personal data stored as well as the purpose and recipients thereof
- have his data corrected if previous data entries have not been accurate
- have his data blocked and deleted
